

Anatomy & Physiology Lab Safety Agreement

It is important to carefully read and fully understand the rules, safety practices, and regulations that govern my conduct in the science laboratory. Including:

- Follow these rules to ensure my safety and the safety of all participants.
- Adhere to all written and verbal instructions provided by the instructor.
- Ask questions if I need clarification about any directions or procedures.

Violating these rules may result in consequences, including but not limited to:

- Removal from the laboratory.
- Removal from the science course.
- A lowered grade.
- Other actions deemed appropriate by the instructor.
